

Succession Planning:

How to safeguard a good life for a person with disability now and in the future

Do you worry about what will happen in the future for yourself and your loved one with disability when you can no longer do what you are currently doing?

If so, this workshop is for you, your supporters and allies!

This practical workshop is designed to motivate and help you to take proactive steps towards ensuring a good life will continue in the future.

At this workshop you will:

- Understand the process involved in effective Succession Planning
- Work out what you need to do, and the importance of being clear about what you want and don't want now and in the future
- Build your capacity and confidence to take the necessary steps in planning for the future.

Wednesday, 7 October

9:30am - 4:15pm

Frenchville Sports Club

105 Clifton Street, Berserker,
ROCKHAMPTON QLD

$10 - $50 for people with disability and family members.
$100 workers, friends and allies.

About the Presenter:

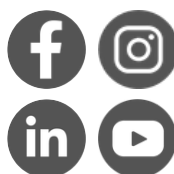

Dianne Mandeville is the parent of a 39-year-old son with complex disabilities. Alongside ensuring a secure and meaningful future for him, she has supported many families and individuals over the years in envisioning and planning for the future and safeguarding a good life.

Register now to secure your loved ones future. RSVP by Wednesday 23 September 2026.

Register now to secure your place or visit cru.org.au/events/upcoming-events/

Please contact CRU if you need assistance
at attend.

Email: cru@cru.org.au

Phone: (07) 3844 2211

Website: www.cru.org.au