

Community Resource
Unit Ltd.

Expanding Ideas; Creating Change

Succession Planning: How to safeguard a good life for a person with disability now and in the future HERVEY BAY WORKSHOP

Wednesday 22 April 2026

9.30am – 4.15pm

Urangan Community Wellness Centre
62 Elizabeth Street, URANGAN

Description

Do you worry about what will happen in the future for yourself and your loved one with disability when you can no longer do what you are currently doing?

If so, this workshop is for you, your supporters and allies!

This practical workshop is designed to motivate and help you to take proactive steps towards ensuring a good life will continue in the future.

At this workshop you will:

- Understand the process involved in effective Succession Planning.
- Work out what you need to do, and the importance of being clear about what you want and don't want now and in the future.
- Build your capacity and confidence to take the necessary steps in planning for the future.

For more details & tickets visit:

www.cru.org.au/events/upcoming-events/

About the Presenter:

Dianne Mandeville is the parent of a 39-year-old son with complex disabilities. Alongside ensuring a secure and meaningful future for him, she has supported many families and individuals over the years in envisioning and planning for the future and safeguarding a good life.

Tickets

$10 - $50 people with disability and family members
$150 workers, friends & allies

This event is supported by funding from the Australian Government Department of Health, Disability and Ageing.

Registrations Essential

RSVP: Tuesday 14 April 2026

Contact us: 07 3844 2211 cru@cru.org.au

