

From Vision to Inclusion: Advocating for your child at school

MACKAY

SOUTHS LEAGUES CLUB

Thursday 19th May, 2022
9:15AM - 2:30PM

This free workshop will help you become more confident in advocating for your child in the education system. Come along and learn about:

- The benefits and features of authentic school inclusion
- How to share and maintain a positive vision with the school
- Setting high expectations for your child
- Effective communication skills and navigating challenges in the school system
- Policies and legislation that can support you in your advocacy

There will be opportunities to meet other families, get more informed and develop skills to communicate with the school.

Who is CRU?

Community Resource Unit Ltd. (CRU) has an over 30 year track record of working throughout Queensland to promote positive change so that people with disabilities can belong to and participate in community life.

The Families for Inclusive Education workshops are delivered by CRU to assist families of students with disability to be clear, informed, confident and connected so they can work as respected and valued partners in their children's education.

Assistance to attend:

There is a small amount of funding available to families who need to travel to attend workshops or who require other support. If you require any assistance to attend or participate in this event please contact CRU to apply for this assistance.
