SUNSHINE COAST WORKSHOP

Imagining, Discovering and Finding Work

School to Work aims to inspire and equip students with disability through the support of their families to seek meaningful, paid employment in the community.

Join us for an interactive and participatory full day workshop that will equip you to actively start finding meaningful, paid work for your teenager with disability. The workshop involves participating in a range of activities and processes so you leave with some concrete plans and strategies to find work for your family member. You will hear first-hand stories and experiences from people with a disability and their family members.

Topics covered will include:

- Uncovering and identifying student strengths and interests and using them as a guide for creating potential work roles.
- Identifying the conditions that help set up a student for success in work.
- Identifying community connections and contacts to approach for work.
- Practical strategies and tips on working collaboratively with other professionals or services.
- Developing a positive pitch to get the job.
- Exploring what good employment support looks like and how to find the right people to support your student.
