

Why subscribe with CRU?

To all the support workers, support coordinators, LACs, team leaders, case managers and advocates out there (and everyone in between!) - CRU's subscription program is exclusively for you!

CRU has long been dedicated to promoting and influencing positive practices and mindsets in the delivery of disability support. If you've ever felt isolated in your role, or in need of additional support and information, know that CRU values you and welcomes you.

By becoming a subscriber, you will join a program that aims to gather and mentor like-minded workers in the QLD disability sector, meanwhile equipping you to create positive change in the lives of the people you support.

Annual Subscription - $100 (tax deductible!)

July 2023 - June 2024 Subscriber inclusions

- ✓ Workshops & networking events, exclusive to subscribers (face-to-face & online)
- ✓ Provision of curated resources to deepen understanding of chosen themes
- ✓ Individual access to consultant support, via phone and email

In 2022-23, we explored topics such as Home, Inclusion and Supported Decision Making; we hosted conversations with international presenters; and provided many opportunities to connect with peers and CRU consultants.

Subscribers have:

- received practical tools and strategies that they have applied to their work, and
- gained new insights about how to work towards a better life for the people they support

Join our community of subscribers, make a commitment to your growth and learning as a worker - and be engaged and inspired.
