

Having a Home of My Own

Session 1: Wednesday 18th June 2025

6pm – 8pm | Wednesday 18 June 2025

CRU Office | Level 2/43 Peel Street

SOUTH BRISBANE

Description

The aim of this conversation series is to spark ideas, share with others and lean into some of the questions and concerns you may have when it comes to thinking about having a home of your own.

Whether you are new to this topic, have been thinking about it for a while or want to review or reflect on your current living arrangement you are welcome to join us this June and July for one or both crucial conversations on home. These events include a light meal.

Session 1 Home: Facing the challenges and finding a way forward- navigating roadblocks, barriers and bridges

When it comes to moving out of the family home today people face questions and challenges with time, money, housing shortages, funding, energy and uncertainty often being very real problems that can get in the way.

These roadblocks, barriers and fears are not going to go away- so let's come together to look at what we can do about them.

Session 2 Home: Connections and collaborations- what can we achieve when we work together?

Connecting with others who can understand your vision for yourself or your family member with disability can help you to build momentum, develop ideas, learn from others and reflect and refine your goals, vision, values, and strategies.

In this conversation we will look at and talk about some of the different ways we can learn together and collaborate to strengthen and resource ourselves, our community and each other.
