

Welcoming People Well

Inclusive Councils, Inclusive Communities

Face to Face Workshop - Emerald

Wed 19th November, 9:00am - 12:30pm

Emerald Town Hall

33 Egerton Street, Emerald

Description

1 in 5 people in our communities have a disability and we know community members want to be welcoming and inclusive but don't always know how.

This workshop is designed as an introduction to the fundamentals of how to include people with disability.

By focusing on people's strengths and our commonalities, Welcoming People Well takes participants beyond simply improving physical access and will assist you to be truly inclusive of all people.

Who is the workshop for?

Designed to help businesses, clubs, groups, services, tourism providers... (anyone and everyone who is interested), to feel more confident to be inclusive, and to have more practical strategies to draw on.

Learning Objectives

- Know what exclusion and inclusion means for people with disability
- Learn about the social model of disability and common myths about disability
- Be introduced to principles of inclusion
- Think about practical things people can do to welcome and include people with disability

Up to 25 people per workshop

About Community Resource Unit (CRU)

CRU believes people with disability deserve access to the same life as everybody else. For over 35 years, CRU has been working across Queensland to help people with disability take control of their lives and take their place in their community.
